

1. Debris removal operations account for approximately _____ percent of disaster recovery costs.
  - a. 10%
  - b. 17%
  - c. 27%
  - d. 49%
2. A debris management team should only include personnel from the jurisdiction impacted by the debris removal process.
  - a. True
  - b. False
3. An eligible applicant for Public Assistance is a:
  - a. Individual property owner.
  - b. State agency.
  - c. Federal agency.
  - d. Private business.
4. The Federal share of eligible costs incurred as a direct result of a declared disaster is no less than:
  - a. 25%.
  - b. 50%.
  - c. 75%.
  - d. 100%.
5. Federal aid for debris removal operations is authorized through the:
  - a. State.
  - b. EO 11990.
  - c. 44 CFR.
  - d. Stafford Act.
6. Public Assistance grants are awarded based on the eligibility of the applicant, facility, work, and:
  - a. Cost.
  - b. Force account labor.
  - c. Contractor.
  - d. Past experiences.
7. Debris work needs to be in the public interest to qualify for Public Assistance.
  - a. True
  - b. False

8. A Preliminary Damage Assessment (PDA) estimates the:
- Federal cost share.
  - Applicant's cost share.
  - Quantity and mix of debris.
  - Recovery time.
9. A temporary location where debris can be hauled and segregated for recycling or reduction is a:
- Landfill
  - Debris Management Site (DMS)
  - Floodplain
  - Recycling center
10. Incineration can reduce vegetative debris up to 95 percent.
- True
  - False
11. _____ make(s) it difficult to estimate the amount of debris to be removed following a disaster.
- Multiple types of debris
  - Debris estimating formulas
  - Aerial photography
  - Number of survivors
12. Consultation with the State Historic Preservation Officer during demolition is necessary to ensure compliance with:
- Endangered Species Act.
  - Resource Conservation and Recovery Act.
  - Stafford Act.
  - National Historic Preservation Act.
13. A lump-sum contract for debris removal is appropriate when:
- Right of way clearance is critical.
  - Contract monitoring is not available.
  - The scope of work is well-defined.
  - Negotiating a non-competitive contract.
14. It is FEMA's responsibility to monitor contractors and to ensure compliance with contracts and environmental requirements.
- True
  - False

15. Which activity in the contracting process could be provided by FEMA staff?
- a. Determination of contract type
  - b. Technical assistance to ensure compliance with Federal laws
  - c. Contract review and approval
  - d. Timeframe for contract activation and completion
16. Which statement is correct concerning debris removal from private property?
- a. Always eligible
  - b. Reimbursement direct to private owner
  - c. Requires Right-of-Entry Agreement and Hold-Harmless Agreement
  - d. Solely at discretion of local government